Dear Mom;

I have been very neglectful writing to you in the past but I promise to change that in the future. I wish that you would write me a letter now and then so I would know that everything is alright.

Received Mary's pinup girls and also the package. I got the letter with the pictures last week. They were swell. I liked them very much. I'm sorry that I can't have any pictures taken here so I could send them home to you.

Every thing is alright with me here and I am feeling fine. We get some good movies here so our nights are enjoyable. I saw a U.S.O. show last nite that was pretty good. The M.C. was a movie actor named Jim Burke. He is the fellow that always plays the part of the dumb cop. He was very good at telling some diabolical stories. They also had a singer named Ralph Gilechrist and a magician named Matty Sunshine. All in all it was a very good evening

Mary wants to know if I knew Dick very well. I did duty with him for a year and we bunked together for about half that time. He is a swell fellow and I'm sorry that we were split up. I wish she would write and tell me what he says.

About Roland, we were good friends, but in the service it doesn't pay to attach yourself too strongly to another person because of transfers. I hope that his back will be alright. As I write this I am watching his brother cook chow for supper. He said that according to the last letter he received, Roland is in a casual company awaiting a medical discharge from the Corps.

Was glad to hear that Mary and Edlie had a nice birthday. It's nice to have people remember you on your birthday especially in times like these.

You look good in your picture, Mom. I'm glad to see that you are feeling fine. I was worried about your health but from what I can tell by looking at your picture, you look very healthy. I understand you are going to have your teeth fixed. Don't spare the expense Mom, have a good job done.

I guess that you and D. G. are getting along very nicely. He must be very inter to have you making over him all the time.

His pictures were swell and now I understand why every body raves about him. He really is a corker. Hope that Diane still comes in for a share of your attention. That was nice of you to buy her that jar of jelly.

Write about all for now, so until later, God Bless the five of you and keep you safe from harm.

Love
George
